About the American Language Institute (ALI)

For over 30 years, students from more than 25 countries come each semester to the ALI to improve their English skills for academic and professional purposes or for personal enrichment. We have a program for every need!

Programs
The ALI has four main programs to prepare international students for academic and professional success:

▲ Intensive English Program (IEP)
▲ Intensive Preparatory Program (PREP)
▲ MBA Prep Program (MBAP)
▲ Global Logistics Specialist, International (GLSI)

Plus, the ALI provides Customized Short-Term programs for groups, for example, English for Healthcare, Hospitality Services, Engineers, or Business.

CSULB Access and Student Life
All ALI students:

▲ take classes in classrooms across the CSULB campus
▲ can use university facilities and resources (including on-campus housing)
▲ can join CSULB clubs, including intramural sports teams
▲ can participate in student events (guest speakers, sports, entertainment, music, and the arts)
▲ have access to free Wi-Fi on campus

Free Conversation and Homework Labs:

▲ Conversation Lab gives ALI students the opportunity to meet and interact with Conversation Partners, who are CSULB students (native English speakers).
▲ In the Homework Lab, trained student tutors provide ALI students with help on homework assignments and practicing skills learned in class.

Our optional after-school Conversation Lab gives students the opportunity to meet and interact with fluent English speakers. Conversation Partners are CSULB students dedicated to helping international students improve their conversation skills. The Homework Lab provides free tutoring for class assignments.

Sample of elective courses may include TOEFL Preparation, Spelling, Pronunciation, IELTS, Business English, GMAT Preparation, Sitcoms, Vocabulary, and Math Preparation.

IEP to CSULB Transition/English Proficiency Waiver:
The ALI admissions team provides current IEP students who are applying to CSULB degree programs with workshops and one-on-one advising on:

▲ Application process/deadlines
▲ TOEFL Waiver/English Proficiency Waiver
▲ CSULB program requirements

Conditional Admission to CSULB:
CSULB applicants who do not yet meet the English Language Proficiency requirements can receive conditional admission by applying to the ALI.

Varies by semester
Global Logistics Specialist, International (GLSI)
Professional Designation

Academic Focus:
The ALI collaborates with the Center for International Trade and Transportation (CITT) to offer this 6-month program in which students participate in 6 modules with regional industry experts as well as fellow classmates from CSULB and from around the world. The program is designed to provide supply chain/logistics training from a US perspective. Additionally, it offers English language instruction from the ALI and/or CSULB Open University courses. The GLS professional designation is endorsed by industry professionals as a comprehensive educational program for individuals entering or seeking advancement in the field of supply chain management and logistics.

Fall/Spring Entry:
▲ Fall term begins July
▲ Spring term begins January

Levels:
GLSI students must have successfully completed the IEP Level 4 or have achieved the minimum score of TOEFL iBT 61, IELTS 6.0, or TOEIC 700.

Modules:
As shown in the chart below, the GLS courses are grouped into five modules and a final team Capstone Project (an oral presentation and written logistics plan).

Customized Programs

Focus:
The ALI offers customized programs for international educational, university, and industry groups that wish to improve their English skills for academic, professional, and personal reasons. These programs can be designed to meet the specific needs of the group.

Customization Options:
▲ duration/dates/hours
▲ locations
▲ skills/content/topics
▲ lectures
▲ field trips and activities

Examples of ALI Customized Programs:
▲ English for Healthcare Professionals
▲ English for Hospitality Services
▲ Business English
▲ English for Engineers in the Workplace
▲ English for High School Teachers and Professors
▲ English Teacher Training for Professionals

Campus Housing

CSULB has 18 residence hall buildings on campus and an off-site residential complex, which are connected via CSULB shuttle services circulating a selected route every 15 minutes. Standard accommodation is double occupancy (two students share a room) and triple occupancy (three students share a room). Students enjoy cafeteria-style meals in our dining halls and social activities organized by the Residential Advisors throughout their stay.

Off-Campus Housing

There are many apartments and houses available for rent or lease in the Long Beach area, most within 15 minutes of campus and the ocean. CSULB students use the Long Beach City Transit free of charge, which provides students easy mobility to local dining areas, as well as weekend shopping.

COMING FALL 2016

BREATHE

CSULB will be a smoke and tobacco-free campus.
