

2018 CHINESE SUMMER CAMP PROGRAM

INFORMATION SHEET

Confucius Institutes at CSULB is a public educational institution aiming at promoting, developing, and offering programs in the areas of Chinese language, culture, arts and tradition. This 2018 Chinese Summer Camp package is tailored to suit the needs of students from different age groups. The ultimate goal is to inspire students to be interested in Chinese language and fun experience for cultural learning. All courses are instructed in bilingual format by professional and certificated native Chinese speakers. This exciting 20-day program will provide a wonderful experience for the students to explore not only the Chinese language, but its rich and beautiful culture as well. The students will be grouped together based on his/her ages and Mandarin proficiency. All culture related activities consist of a variety of presentations.

- Dates: June 18—July 13, 2018 (No camp on Wednesday July 4th)
- Time: 8:30am - 4:30pm, Monday—Friday Daily (TBD)
- Location: Peterson Hall 1 at California State University, Long Beach (CSULB)

Fees: $240 (Full tuition is due by June 3rd.)

Fees include T-shirt, cap, sun-flower pen, and program completion certificate as well as all the teaching and practice materials.

- Notes: Meals are not included.

Sign up for the camp:

- Complete the CSULB Chinese summer camp application form;
- Complete the CSULB Chinese summer camp waiver form;
- Pay the $240 fee. Mail us your personal check to the title of CSULB by the application deadline to the following address:

Ms. Bing Cao

6300 State University DR. Foundation -250 Long Beach, CA, 90815

The program of 2018 is open to the students in the 4th grade through 12th grade. We encourage that you apply immediately to guarantee your children's participation in this program. The deadline to accept your application is June 3rd, 2018.

We thank you for your interest and support. To sign up, please contact the Confucius Institute at 562-985-1062 or by email Bing.Cao@csulb.edu for more information.